Sunday morning, 10/17/2021, EDP notified Eastern NY Youth Soccer Association (ENYSSA) it was decided to use SAY Soccer to sanction what will now be called the NY League Cup and will not be the EDP League Cup.

This means that SAY Soccer is now the sanctioning body instead of the ENYSSA/ US Youth Soccer platform.

In order to help clarify what this means, please see the following Q&A:

Player Passes & Rosters

Q: What rosters and passes will be used?

A: This should be directed to the NY League Cup.

Q: Can we use our Eastern NY / US Youth Soccer passes and rosters for this competition?

A: No. Per Rule 103.6 US Youth Soccer Association does not permit US Youth Soccer passes from being used for competitions not sanctioned by US Youth Soccer or one of its members.

Q: Can ENYSSA provide an alternate pass?

A: If NY League Cup is not providing SAY Soccer passes and rosters, an alternate non-ENYSSA / non-USYS player pass can be printed from GotSport using the F13CC template

Certificates of Insurance & Field Permits

Q: Can we use our existing Certificates of Insurance provided by ENYYSA and the corresponding field permits for these matches?

A: No. The ENYYSA Certificates of Insurance only cover ENYYSA sanctioned events.

Q: What do we use for a Certificate of Insurance?

A: The NY League Cup announcement provided information about getting a copy of their COI.

Referees

Q: Can USSF Referees be used for NY League Cup matches?

A: Yes. SAY Soccer is a member of US Soccer and therefore USSF referees can be used for these matches.

Further updates will be provided as they become available.
